Order...

the Banned Books Week Kit.

The $55 kit includes a 2004 Resource Manual full of great display ideas, three posters, a list of titles that have been challenged over the last year, 100 bookmarks and a Banned Books Week pin. Kit and individual items may be ordered through the American Library Association, www.ala.org/ala/oif/bannedbooks-week/bannedbooksweek.htm, or by calling (800) 545-2433, ext. 4220.

Circulate...

the Campaign for Reader Privacy petition urging Congress to restore the safeguards for bookstore and library privacy that were eliminated by the PATRIOT Act. The petition can be downloaded at www.readerprivacy.org.

Organize...

a free-expression program around the video, "Reading Your Rights." "Reading Your Rights" is a 26-minute documentary about the Tattered Cover Book Store's successful fight against a search warrant demanding the names of books purchased by a customer.

Creating a program on the issue of reader privacy is easy. After showing "Reading Your Rights," ask your local librarian and an attorney or law professor to join you in discussing the issue from their perspectives. The American Booksellers Foundation for Free Expression (ABFFE) is preparing a discussion guide for the documentary and will be happy to assist in the planning of your event.

"Reading Your Rights" can be purchased for $35 using the order form in this pamphlet.

Sell...

T-shirts, bumper stickers and buttons from ABFFE, the bookseller's voice in the fight against censorship. ABFFE is offering items featuring our popular FREEDOM logo. We have also released a new Harry Potter T-shirt and button.

ABFFE is now offering a 50% discount on orders of 12 or more shirts. In addition, you can have your store logo imprinted on the back for only $1 per shirt. All items can be ordered from our online store, www.abffe.com, or by calling (212) 587-4025.
